EMERGENCY RESPONSE FORM

1. Name of group and "leader."________________________________________________________

2. Nature of incident, location, and time.________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________________

3. Name and description of injured or sick person._______________________________________

4. Victim's condition and what first aid is being administered.______________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________________

5. Support needed (Personnel and Equipment) ___________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________________

6. Is the group planning to attempt an evacuation?
   (Criteria for evacuation ALL MUST BE YES!
       A. Is group large enough? ______
       B. Is group capable of this particular evacuation? ______
       C. Is evacuation route terrain easy to moderate? ______
       D. Will the problem get worse by waiting? ______
       E. Can you predetermine the route, trailhead, and send someone to notify the authorities? ______
       F. Will the patient's condition stay the same despite rough handling or will the patient's condition be better than if you waited for a fully equipped team? ______

7. Weather: current and anticipated, time of day. _________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________________

8. Group at scene: size, food, equipment and strength. ____________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________________

9. Map with exact location of group and victim, or evacuation route and rendezvous point. Details of route and itinerary in writing. Contingency plans in writing.

10. Projection of situation 1, 6, 12 hours form now.

Make 2 copies of this information and give one to the runners. The runners must carry water, food, map, clothing, sleeping bag, and flashlight. They should move quickly (but don't run) to the trailhead or nearest phone to contact authorities. Read the information on the form, answer any questions. Wait to assist the rescue party unless instructed otherwise. Don't talk to anyone but rescue personnel.