Campus Recreation Rental Guidelines and Policies

Deposits and Cancellations

A deposit of 50% is required the day before the reservation takes place. Unless other arrangements are made, Campus Recreation Services (CRS) will collect final billing a predetermined number of days after the event has finished, if damages or other charges need to be added to the final bill.

To cancel a confirmed event, the group must notify CRS by calling 801-581-8513 Monday – Friday during business hours.

Events canceled more than two weeks in advance will not incur a cancellation penalty.

Those events canceled less than two weeks in advance will incur 50% of all rental charges.

Groups that do not show up for a confirmed event will incur 50% of all rental charges.

Additional fees will be charged to the group if reserved space is not cleaned properly following the event.

Rental Guideless and Policies

Only Registered Student Organization requests will be considered during the first two weeks of each semester. Eccles Student Life Center (ESLC) facilities are reserved in the order in which they are received.

We recommend that you familiarize yourself with our Policies and Procedures at campusrec.utah.edu. All individuals or groups using the ESLC shall follow all University and CRS policies, regulations, guidelines, and all local, State, and Federal laws.

Organized/group activities must be approved in advance by CRS or will be subject to discretion of on-duty management. Use of facilities for paid instructional purposes or coaching is prohibited with the exception of recognized CRS programs.

CRS will only consider facility requests that are appropriate to the facility design and must be recreational, athletic, or wellness based programs.

All requests for space must be made at least 2 weeks in advance. For large events, requests must be made at least 30 days in advance.

Space reserved for RSO's and University Departments is intended for matriculated U of U students or CRS Members. Participation by non-U of U students is prohibited unless permission is granted by CRS. CRS will determine appropriate protocol for admissions for events.

All rental groups are responsible for the behavior of their members and guests and will be held liable for any personal injury or damage or theft of University property.

CRS reserves the right to dismiss any individual if their behavior jeopardizes the safety and well-being of other users or the facility.

Groups are responsible for any damage which occurs as a result of improper behavior or misuse of equipment/facilities during the event. Group will be billed for costs associated with any special cleaning or maintenance required for damages.

Groups are responsible for ensuring trash is disposed of properly at the conclusion of the event or additional fees will be charged.

Rental of the ESLC also includes use of the locker rooms. These areas are subject to the same guidelines as reserved.

Additional needs such as scoreboards, heavy bags, stereo and AV equipment must be discussed prior to the event. There may be an additional charge for this equipment.

Due to high demand, groups may be limited to no more than 2 hours per week.

All University participants must present their valid UCard or CRS membership card for admittance to the event to the ESLC.

Only written requests will be considered. Drop-in and phone reservations are not accepted.

CRS reserves the right to reschedule or cancel any reserved space when warranted (maintenance, weather, etc.)

Individuals under the age of 18 are not permitted use of any fitness equipment, cardiovascular and weights.

CRS staff has the final authority in all decisions related to participant, spectator, staff safety, potential facility damage, or non-compliance of facility and U of U policies and guidelines or staff requests. This includes the authority to modify or discontinue any activity. Group representatives are expected to support and assist the staff in all decisions.

Groups that misuse the facilities or violate policies of the University or CRS or the Rental Agreement will result in the loss of scheduling privileges.

Except service animals, no animals are permitted in any Campus Recreation Facilities.

No individual or group may release reserved space to another individual group.

Group Representative

The individual(s) listed on the Facility Request will be responsible for all guests and should act as the representative in charge of the rental. If this individual will not be in attendance, another representative must be designated prior to the event. Please communicate relevant policies to your group prior to event.

Supervision/Staffing

CRS Facility Event Staff will be assigned for each private event. Staffing requirements will be appropriate to the nature of the event, number of participants, and are an additional fee.

CRS staff and/or assigned Special Event Supervisors will have complete authority.

Facilities may only be reserved during non-peak times. These times are fluid in nature and CRS will make this determination on a situational basis.

Equipment and Attire

Sport equipment may be rented or brought into the facility with prior approval from CRS. For rental equipment, a group representative is responsible for the return of equipment in a timely manner.

Secure all personal property in lockers. Lockers may be rented from Gear Central on the lower level. Personal items such as shoes, bags, and clothing may not be left in general public areas or on activity floor spaces.

Athletic, non-marking shoes must be worn in activity areas at all times.

Shirts and appropriate sport clothing are required in all dry side activity areas.

Decorations/Banners/Displays

Decorations may not compromise public safety or create risk of property damage and must be approved by CRS.

Decorations must not interfere with access to entrances/exits. Decorations must be free standing, including signs. No tape, glue, tacks, or nails are permitted.

No signage or decorations are permitted without prior approval from CRS. Details not listed or approved will not be permitted. No storage permitted. All sundry items must be removed at end of event.

Please note that CRS does not supply extensions cords, ladders, tape, power strips or other supplies.

Food/Beverages

Food and beverages are only allowed in the entry level concourse. Only spill-proof, containing water, may be taken into activity areas. Any exception to this policy must be approved by the Manager, Scheduling and Services. For non-recreation based events that require catering, Chartwells is the only approved vendor to provide this service in the ESLC.

Information Tables

RSO and University departments and organizations may rent space in the entry level concourse and outdoor patio areas on a limited basis.

These tables may only provide information that is relevant and consistent with the mission and values of the University and CRS, such as recruitment of members, fundraise for a campus department, club, or organization, or other benevolent causes that promote programs or services. No solicitation is allowed.

All materials must be kept on top or underneath the table and removed at the end of the reservation.

CRS is not responsible for any lost, stolen, or damaged property.

Youth/Sport Camps

Request for the use of the ESLC are based on the following factors:

- Only camps sponsored by a university department or organization will be considered
- Facility /space availability
- Compatibility of activity with facility use, function, and regulations
- Health and safety considerations for participants and potential damage to facility

Application Request for use must be submitted 30 days prior to camp.

The sponsoring organization shall assume full responsibility for conduct of any participant, guest, or spectator who attends the camp it is sponsoring.

CRS is not responsible for accidents, injury or, loss of individual property.

Supervision of camp's minor participants will be a 1-8 ratio for ages 6-9 and 1-10 ratio for ages 10-17. Sponsoring organization is responsible for providing camp supervisors. Minors must be supervised by an adult at all times in facility.

Appropriate clothing and shoes must be worn. Athletic shoes are required. No sport sandals or open-toed shoes.

No food or drink (other than water) is allowed.

CERTIFICATE OF INSURANCE

The USER agrees to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the University, its agents or employees from any and all injury, damage, or loss to persons or property that results from or is in any way connected with the use of University property by the USER or USER's agents, guests, invitees, volunteers, performers, employees, providers, contractors and subcontractors, except where such injury, damage or loss is caused by the sole negligence of the University. Further, the USER agrees to provide a certificate of insurance for Commercial General Liability insurance in the amount of at least $1,000,000 per occurrence that lists the University of Utah as an additional insured. USER may also be required to provide evidence of other insurance coverages that are reasonable based on USER's operations. The insurance provisions herein may only be waived by the Campus Recreation Services Department in consultation with the University Risk and Insurance Manager. The indemnification obligations of this paragraph shall survive termination of this Agreement.
