Outdoor Adventures Trip Leader | Job Description

OA Trip leaders are outdoor enthusiasts who are passionate about sharing their knowledge of outdoor activities with others from the University community.

Trip Leader Expectations:

Trip leaders are passionate about the outdoors and willing to spend time and energy helping engage other students in various outdoor activities. Overall, you are responsible for the physical and emotional safety of the group. Trip leaders are expected to:

* Achieve and maintain a current certification in wilderness medicine and CPR (WFA minimum)
* Develop competence in one or more outdoor activities
* Lead a minimum of 1 trip during the semester
* Participate (as a participant or instructor) in at least one field or classroom training per semester
* Attend trip leader meetings (typically once a month during semesters)
* Complete the Beginner Outdoor Leadership and Training course (dates TBD)